

November 4, 2022

To Whom it May Concern:

I hereby certify that between July 28, 2022 and August 15, 2022, Thomas Hanson completed a total of 16 hours of Community Service at the Rhode Island Community Food Bank. Thomas assisted in our production room with a variety of projects including packing meal boxes and sorting produce.

At the Food Bank volunteers are so very important to the work we do to help Rhode Islanders in need of food assistance. We are so appreciative of the time and energy they commit to helping us prepare food for distribution.

If you need any further information about the volunteer program at the Rhode Island Community Food Bank, please contact me at 401-230-1681.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Jeanne K. Hebert".

Jeanne Hebert
Volunteer Coordinator

