

SNAP INCOME GUIDELINES For Individuals and Families

SNAP is the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program

Many people are eligible for SNAP & don't know it.
Could you be one of them?

People in household	1	2	3	4	5	6	Each Additional
Gross monthly Income	$2,096	$2,823	$3,552	$4,279	$5,006	$5,735	$729

 If your income is above these limits, you may still be eligible if there is a person over age 60 or a person on disability in your household*

Important Facts:

- You may be eligible for SNAP, even if you work, are unemployed, do not pay rent or do not have children.
- The value of your car, house, life insurance, or savings does not count.
- SNAP recipients are also eligible for many other benefits such as lower electric, gas and phone rates.
- Some Immigrant adults must have a legal status for 5 years, but there is no waiting period for immigrant children or some disabled immigrant adults.
- College students may also qualify for SNAP!
- Worried about getting to DHS for the application interview? DHS interviews can be done by phone.

*Prepared by Lihna Agostini, Community Outreach Manager, RI Community Food Bank.
For use by RICFB member agencies & their guests. All information has been confirmed using reliable state and federal sources.*

Last Updated October 2022