National & International Organizations

Immigration Advocates Network

The Immigration Advocates Network is a national registry of all legal support organizations, firms, and services that work primarily with immigrant communities. The registry is updated regularly with addresses, hours of operation, and contact information. To utilize the registry or to learn more about the Immigration Advocates Network, visit <https://www.immigrationadvocates.org/legaldirectory/search?state=RI>.

Higher Ground International

Higher Ground International is dedicated to advocating for, empowering, and providing life-changing services to Liberians and West African immigrants, refugees, and other marginalized communities in Rhode Island. Higher Ground offers basic necessity supplies, culturally appropriate food, job readiness training, financial assistance, immigration support, community gatherings, and so much more. Learn more at <https://highergroundintl.org/>.

Refugees International

Refugees International focuses on the important refugee, displacement, humanitarian, and human rights issues that need urgent attention and action. Advocates travel to some of the world's most severe displacement crises to investigate first-hand the challenges displaced people face, create policy solutions, and demand action. Learn more at <https://www.refugeesinternational.org/>.

International Rescue Committee

The International Rescue Committee (IRC) works in over 40 crisis-affected countries, as well as communities throughout Europe and the Americas. The IRC delivers lasting impact by providing health care, helping children learn, and empowering individuals and communities to become self-reliant. They are always seeking to address the inequalities facing women and girls. Learn more about the IRC at <https://www.rescue.org>.
