

Kent County Resource Guide

Food Resources

Find out which pantries and meal sites are in your area by accessing the Food Bank “Find Food” tool or using our Food Assistance List by visiting rifoodbank.org/find-food or use the QR code below:

SNAP Assistance

If you are interested in learning more about the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or need assistance with current benefits, contact the Food Bank’s SNAP Outreach program at rifoodbank.org/snap-outreach or use the QR code below:

Community Action Agencies

Community Action agencies aim to provide resources, support, services and programs to Rhode Island residents. Each CAP agency provides varying services, contact the agency for exact services provided. For a list of state-wide CAPS, go to www.ricommunityaction.org.

Westbay Community Action Partnership

487 Jefferson Blvd., Warwick, RI 02889
401-732-4660 | www.westbaycap.org

Tri-County Community Action Program

415 Tower Hill Rd., North Kingstown, RI 02852
401-351-2750 | www.tricounty.org

Tri-County Community Action Program

1935 Kingstown Rd., Wakefield, RI 02879
401-351-2750 | www.tricountyri.org

DHS Offices

Go to www.dhs.ri.gov/about-us/dhs-offices for a listing of all state-wide Department of Human Services offices.

Warwick DHS

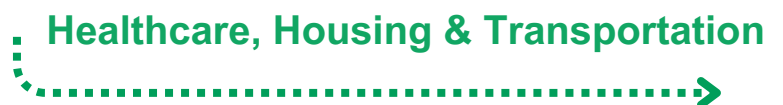

195 Buttonwoods Ave., Warwick 02889
Phone: (855)-697-4347

Providence DHS

1 Reservoir Ave., Providence 02907
Phone: (855)-697-4347

Resource Referrals

Additional resources can be provided by United Way of Rhode Island. United Way provides resource referrals for a variety of basic needs. Contact United Way at unitedwayri.org or call 2-1-1.

General Healthcare	Comprehensive Community Action Program Family Health Services	CCAP Family Health provides non-emergency basic family healthcare services for registered families and individuals.	comcap.org (401) 828-5335
	WellOne/Primary Medical and Dental	WellOne provides low-cost, non-emergency medical & dental care for individuals and families.	welloneri.org (401) 295-9706
	Rhode Island Free Clinic	Rhode Island Free Clinic provides free/low-cost, non-emergency medical and dental care for all Rhode Islanders.	rifreeclinic.org (401) 274-6347
	BH Link	BH Link provides mental health resources and services to all Rhode Islanders.	www.bhlink.org (401) 414-5465
Housing Resources	RI Housing Authority	Rhode Island Housing Authority is the states central housing branch, and can provide information for your local authority.	rihousing.com (401) 457-1234
	Coordinated Entry System	The Coordinated Entry System provides referrals for individuals and families to shelter and emergency housing programs throughout RI.	rihomeless.org/ces (401) 277-4316
	Crossroads Rhode Island	Crossroads RI provides numerous services to individuals and families, including emergency housing and permanency assistance.	crossroadsri.org (401) 521-2255
Transportation	Diocese of Providence	The Diocese provides support for housing resources, including shelter programs, rental assistance and elder services. Church membership is not required.	dioceseofprovidence.org (401) 278-2504
	RIPTA Bus Routes	RIPTA Bus routes run throughout Rhode Island. A one way ride is $2.50, with fare waivers available for select populations.	www.ripta.com (401) 781-9400