

Resources for CSFP Participants

As a participant in the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP), you may also be eligible for other helpful programs. Below is information on additional resources that support seniors and families.

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Monthly payments for people 65+ or with disabilities who have limited income/resources.

- 1 (800) 772-1213
- Info: www.ssa.gov/ssi
- Local office: <https://secure.ssa.gov/ICON/main.jsp>

Medicaid & Medicare Help

• Medicaid

Health coverage for people with limited income.

- 1 (855) 840-4774
- Info: <https://healthsourceri.com/>
- Info: www.medicaid.gov
- State contacts: www.medicaid.gov/about-us/where-can-people-get-help-medicaid-chip

• Medicare & Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries (QMB)

May help with Medicare costs.

- 1 (888) 884-8721 Office of Healthy Aging State Health Insurance Program
- Info: www.medicare.gov

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

Provides monthly benefits to buy healthy food.

- 1 (855)-697-4347 Rhode Island DHS
- Info: www.fns.usda.gov/snap
- Info: <https://healthyrhode.ri.gov>
- State directory: www.fns.usda.gov/snap/state-directory

Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP)

Starting June 1, 2026 - November 30, 2026

Helps low-income seniors get fresh fruits, vegetables, and herbs directly from farmers and farmers' markets.

- Info: (401) 537-4285 Christopher Rueckel, Agriculture Marketing Specialist
- Email for Info: DEM.SFMNP@dem.ri.gov
- Program info: www.fns.usda.gov/sfmnp

(Availability depends on your state and may be seasonal.)

The Rhode Island Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC)

To learn more on a wide range of programs and other resources based on your needs.

- Info: 401-462-4444
- Info: <https://oha.ri.gov/aging-disability-resource-center>

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

Approved by OHA 9-19-25